

DAVID BOSH

Looking back to the last 50 years of music career David Bosh`s new album ALL TIMES (Calygram Records) gives an emotional reflection of his life. Each Song tells a story. Critical, romantically, pensive, sensual and temperamental. One song for one decade.

David Bosh was born in a small city named Korbach in the middle of Germany.. He says: Music is part of my life. I grew up with music and I will pass away with music.

In the age of 12 he performed the first time solo on stage. When he was 15 years old he runs his first band.

After finishing his study he stepped into the professionell music business as a singer/songwriter, producer and manager in several functions. In the 80`s and 90`s he worked together with a lot of worlds famous artist like Stevie Wonder, The Bee Gees, Oscar Peterson, Bruce Springsteen, Partland Bros. etc.

One of his No 1 hits in Europe and many other countries in the world was „The Power of Love“ by Jennifer Rush who were discovered by him for CBS Music in the early 80s. By the way the name BOSH was given to him by Stevie Wonder in 1985 because Stevie was not able to prononciate David Bosh`s civil name Volker Bauch.

David Bosh`s latest release ALL TIMES including songs like WONDERLAND, MAGIC, UP TO YOU, REALLY GOOD FRIEND and MUSIC (All what I need). It`s easy to identify with it for everyone. ALL TIMES stands for Feelings, Dreaming and Dancing.
